Special issue "Understanding Social Cognition"

Submission Deadline: 31 August 2018

Following the success of TIS 2017: Understanding Social Cognition conference in Lublin, 2017 we would like to invite you to submit a paper to a special issue of Avant (ISSN 2082-6710). This special issue will explore the full spectrum of social cognition related (but not limited) to the following fields:

- social and cultural factors in mindreading and meta-cognition
- constructing group thinking, group knowledge and social mind through interaction and communication
- socially determined processes of problem solving and decision making
- the role of tools and artifacts in cognition

The issue will include the discussion on Daniel Dennett's book *From Bacteria to Bach and Back with planned author's replay.

Invited authors:

Him Cheung (Hong Kong)
Arkadiusz Gut (Lublin)
Marcin Miłkowski (Warsaw)
Robert Rupert (Boulder)
Tadeusz W. Zawidzki (Washington)

Contributions must be a maximum of 10 000 words (references included), footnotes and bibliography edited according to APA 6th ed., 4-7 keywords and an abstract. Authors are requested to register and submit their paper using Avant's online system for registration and submission. More about Avant publication policy and procedures at <http://avant.edu.pl/en/for-authors>.

All submissions will be subject to a double-blinded peer review. Avant publishes open access, on the online-first publication basis. The copyrights remain with the author, and publications are free of charge. More information at <http://avant.edu.pl/en/>.

Important dates:

Submission deadline: 30 August 2018
Notifications of acceptance: late December 2018
Publication: August 2019
