

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15

ROOM 200 The Polish Academy of Sciences, Nowy Świat Street 72 ROOM 242

9:30-10:30 – Registration

10:30-10:45 – WELCOMING WORDS [Room 200]

10:45-12:15 – Keynote Lecture [Room 200]:

Shaun Gallagher (University of Memphis): Situating things: Material engagement and joint agency

12:15-12:30 – Coffee break

12:30-13:00 – Massimiliano Cappuccio (UAE University): Transcendence and Incarnation: an Inquiry about Mind-Upload and Embodied Cognition Theory

13:00-13:30 – Konrad Szocik (University of Information Technology and Management in Rzeszow): Cognition, action and acquisition of religious beliefs in the light of Cognitive Science of Religion (CSR)

12:30-13:00 – Zsuzsanna Kondor (Hungarian Academy of Sciences): Representation and Extension in Cognitive Theories

13:00-13:30 – Marcin Trybulec (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University): Rethinking the materiality of external representations

13:30-15:00 – Lunch break

Body and Extension*

15:00-15:30 – Ashleigh Watson (University of Edinburgh): Rethinking the Body Image/Body schema Distinction: A response to Gallagher and De Vignemont

15:30-16:00 – Przemysław Nowakowski (Centre for Philosophical Research): On identification dependence of (sense of body) ownership

16:00-16:15 – Coffee break

16:15-16:45 – Pii Telakivi (University of Helsinki): Extended experience – active perception or experiential cognition?

16:45-17:15 – Robert Clowes (New University of Lisbon): Can Self be Extended by Technology?

[*Frederique de Vignemont will not be able to attend the conference. We sincerely apologize for this change.]

17:15-17:30 – Coffee break

17:30-18:10 – POSTER SESSION, PART I [Room 200]

Katarzyna Chludzińska (University of Warsaw): Cognition in Pregnancy: The Question of Patient's Competence to Consent to Treatment • Piotr Litwin (University of Warsaw): Does motivation modulate Rubber Hand Illusion (RHI) experience? An experimental study • Patrycja Maciaszek (Jagiellonian University): Cognitive factors causing memory distortion vulnerability in the light of

Group Cognition

15:00-15:30 – Georg Theiner (Villanova University): Group-Sized Distributed Cognitive Systems

15:30-16:00 – Barbara Trybulec (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University): Group Agency and Its Problems

16:15-16:45 – Marek Pokropski (University of Warsaw): What are Mental Concepts in Social Cognition?

16:45-17:15 – Gregory Sandstrom (European Humanities University): Understanding Human Extension: Because it's not just our minds that extend interdisciplinary studies • Paweł Motyka (University of Warsaw): Embodied visual awareness. Disambiguating perception by body posture: a predictive processing perspective • Tereza Nekovarova, E. Kozakova, I. Fajnerova, J. Tintera, J. Rydlo, F. Spaniel, J. Horacek (¹National Institute of Mental Health; ²Charles University in Prague): Theory of Mind: Self Projection vs. Cognitive Schemas • Joanna Szczotka (Jagiellonian University): Schizophrenia as a disorder of embodied self • Witold M. Wachowski (University of Warsaw): Gender in distributed cognitive system. Case studies • Tom Walker (University CL): Affective culture – extended emotions • The Academic Circle Koło Kognitywistyki (Maria Curie-Sklodowska University)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16

ROOM 200 The Polish Academy of Sciences, Nowy Świat Street 72 ROOM 242

10:00-11:30 – Keynote Lecture [Room 200]:

Mark H. Bickhard (Lehigh University): Representing as an agentic activity, not a structure

11:30-12:00 – Coffee break

12:00-13:30 – Keynote Lecture [Room 200]:

Katarzyna Paprzycka (University of Warsaw): Intentional Omissions in Disguise: The Knobe Effect, the Epistemic Side Effect, and Related Problems

13:30-15:00 – Lunch break

Mechanisms and Algorithms

15:00-16:00 – Symposium Keynote Lecture [Room A]: Marcin Miłkowski (Polish Academy of Sciences): Situatedness and models of mechanisms

16:00-16:30 – Paweł Gładziejewski (Polish Academy of Sciences): When do mechanistic explanations count as representational explanations?

16:30-16:45 – Coffee break

16:45-17:15 – Coelho Mollo (King's College London, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin): Mechanism, Computational Structure and Representation in Cognitive Science

17:15-17:45 – Jarek Gryz (York University): Anytime Algorithms

17:45-18:15 – Zuzanna Rucinska (University of Hertfordshire, Leiden University): Situating presence in wide mechanism

18:15-18:45 – Discussion

15:00-15:30 – Robin Löhr (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin): Do neo-empiricist theories of abstract concepts leave anything out?

15:30-16:00 – Andrzej Kapusta (Maria Curie-Sklodowska University): Decision making in the light of depressive experience

16:00-16:30 – Adrianna Smurzyńska (Jagiellonian University): Disordered emotions in disordered beliefs

16:45-17:15 – Paulina Gołaska (Adam Mickiewicz University): Reflectiveness of mothers of children with Autism Spectrum Disorders

17:15-17:45 – Piotr Kozak: Pain and Concepts or the Myth of the Given Revisited

17:45-18:45 – POSTER SESSION, PART. II

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17

The University of Warsaw, Stary Buw, Krakowskie Przedmieście Street 26/28

ROOM 205

9:15-10:45 – Keynote Lecture

Kenneth Aizawa (Rutgers University): Perception, Action, and Embodiment

10:45-11:00 – Coffee break

11:00-12:30 – Keynote Lecture

Giovanna Colombetti (University of Exeter): From sensorimotor to affective incorporation

12:30-12:45 – Coffee break

Embodied Cognition

12:45 -13:45 – Symposium Keynote Lecture

Andrew Wilson & Sabrina Golonka (Leeds Beckett University): Ecological Information Makes Embodiment Possible [Discussion will be continued after lunch]

13:45-15:15 – Lunch break

The University of Warsaw, Institute of Philosophy, Krakowskie Przedmieście Street 3

ROOM 108

ROOM 109

Embodied Cognition

15:15-15:45 – Discussion

15:45-16:15 – Robin Zebrowski (Beloit College): On ‘Similar Enough’ Embodiment and Its Challenge to Our Theories of Consciousness and Cognition

16:15-16:45 – Camille Buttingsrud (University of Copenhagen): Defying the mind-body hierarchy - Proposing a reflective order of embodied self-consciousness

16:45-17:00 – Coffee break

17:00-17:30 – Sara Manasterska (University of Warsaw): Embodiment in the Languages of the Ancient Near East

17:30-18:00 – Biju Antony (IIT Bombay): Embodied Cognition and Samkhya System

18:00-18:30 – Piotr Litwin (University of Warsaw): Non-veridicality of perception in service of minimizing global prediction error - embedding desires into predictive processing framework

18:30-19:00 – Russell McBride (University of Utah): The Homeostatic Mind

15:15-15:45 – Klara Łuczniak (Plymouth University): Between Minds And Bodies - A study into group flow experience in dance improvisation

15:45-16:15 – Luke Kersten (Carleton University): Music, Affect and Extended Cognition

16:15-16:45 – Bruno Pušić (University of Zagreb): A Survey of biologists on the species problem

17:00-17:30 – Krystyna Bielecka (University of Warsaw): Cognition and representations in ethology

17:30-18:00 – Magdalena Brodziak (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań): The cubicles of historical vivisection. A cognitive tools of realizing, explaining, and acquiring the historiography commonly understood as abstract construction

18:00-18:30 – Anita Galuschek (Heidelberg University): Me, Myself, and the Other. Melanesian and Western Ideas on Selfhood and Recognition

19:30 – social outing somewhere in town

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18

The University of Warsaw, Institute of Philosophy, Krakowskie Przedmieście Street 3

ROOM 108

ROOM 109

Affected Cognition

10:00-10:30 – Robert Zaborowski (Polish Academy of Sciences): Affectivity in its relation to memory

10:30-11:00 – Martin Krampell & Gustav Johansson (Linköping University): Providing a Dual Process Account for the Relationship Between Affect, Emotion and Cognition

11:00-11:30 – Michał Barcz & Leon Ciechanowski (University of Warsaw): Where do the reasons come from

11:30-11:45 – Coffee break

11:45-12:15 – Jan Winkowski (University of Warsaw): The role of modifiers in the Knobe Effect

12:15-12:45 – Sławomir Mijas & Ignacy Szczeniowski (University of Warsaw): On the Mysterious S-M Effect—Does Knowledge Imply Belief?

12:45-13:15 – Aleksandra Koltun (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University): Practices of producing knowledge for a social change. A case study of a Polish non-governmental organization

10:00-10:30 – Kinga Jęczyńska (University of Warsaw, Jagiellonian University Medical College): The sensorimotor theory and the sense of taste

10:30-11:00 – Adrian Thomas Downey (University of Sussex): Radical Sensorimotor Enactivism

11:00-11:30 – Jasper van den Herik (Erasmus University Rotterdam): Content in a Radical Enactivist Account of Linguistic Cognition

11:45-12:15 – Michał Klincewicz (Berlin School of Mind and Brain, Jagiellonian University): Action and temporal mental qualities

12:15-12:45 – Krzysztof Dołęga (Ruhr Universität Bochum): Action-oriented Predictive Coding as Virtual Enactivism

12:45-13:15 – Mark-Oliver Casper (RUB Research School): Unbelievable Problems. How to deal with inference making and beliefs in situated cognition theories?

13:15 – CLOSING WORDS [Room 108]
